

DAILY RECORD-UNION

FRIDAY.....MARCH 13, 1851.

The RECORD-UNION is the only paper on the coast, outside of San Francisco, that receives the full Associated Press dispatches from all parts of the world. Outside of San Francisco it has no competitor, in point of numbers, in its house and general circulation throughout the country.

SAF FRANCISCO AGENCY.

J. L. FISHER is Sole Agent for this paper San Francisco and vicinity. He is authorized to receive all remittances and subscriptions, and collects for the same. Rooms 21 and 22, Merchants' Exchange.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

In New York yesterday Government bonds were quoted at $1,000; for 15% to 10%; 11½% to 10%; sterling, $4 8d to 87; 10½% to 8%; silver bars, 10½%.

Silver in London, 40d; bonds, 10½%; 5 per cent. United States bonds, extended 10%; 12½%; 4½% to 11½%.

In San Francisco Mexican dollars are quoted at 40c.

The leading saddle-comstocks received strong support and were quite active in San Francisco yesterday, while the rest of the market was neglected and merely steady, in sympathy with the favorites. Hale & Norcross rose to 75¢.

The spring meeting of the Pacific Coast Conference will be presided over by General.

St. Patrick's Catholic church—the largest in Washington—was burned yesterday.

The Calumet was again in session yesterday at Washington.

War has again fairly commenced in Central America, and the forces of Guatemala are marching against San Salvador.

El Madrid expects that the time to organize and expand will be Arabia.

English holders of Wabash Railroad bonds announced the management of last concern.

During the recent exciting around Kelung the Chinese less was 12,000.

It is reported in London that Kusuda has fallen into the hands of El Madrid.

El Madrid is now entertained in England that hostilities with Russia can be avoided.

A murderer who is to be executed at Los Angeles next week, was born in the event.

The racing contest at Stockton yesterday between the Amity and Stockton Boat Clubs was won by the latter by three lengths.

A murderer who is to be executed at Los Angeles next week, was born in the event.

The trial of the late General Banning, at Wilmingon, yesterday, was largely attended by citizens of Los Angeles.

Two prominent politicians were sentenced to fine and imprisonment at Chicago yesterday, for participation in election frauds.

The President sent a message to the Senate yesterday, withdrawing the Nebraskan and other neutrals.

To J. Jones, late Georgia Commissioner of Agriculture, committed suicide at Greenville, in that State.

The gross earnings of the Union Pacific Railroad for January were $1,674,000.

It is stated in New York that several of Senator Stanford's flyers will take part this summer in the Eastern seas.

Joseph Drake will be hanged to-day in Salem, Oregon.

The Irish of Portland, Ore., are making great preparations for the celebration of St. Patrick's day.

Counterfeit silver dollars are being passed upon the citizens of Gold Hill, Nev.

A National Council of the Union League will be held in New York on the 26th inst.

Andrea Morrocco was convicted of polygamy in Salt Lake, last night.

Frederick A. Gruen, an old citizen, left a daughter in Marysville yesterday and broke his rifle leg.

England and Germany have agreed upon a Committee to settle their Afghan differences.

The Dublin Municipal Council have resolved to give a hearty welcome to the Prince and Princess of Wales.

At Union City, Tennesse, Wednesday night, a noted three negroes from the awards having them in charge, and hanged them to a tree.

STILL SQUIRMING.

Our neighbor is finally and wonderfully worked up about the true sentiment of this people on the question of licensing gaming. It contends that the issue was not before the voters on Tuesday, because the Act prohibiting license passed the Legislature the afternoon of the day preceding the election. Stuff! The bill had not been signed. It was not known that it would ever become a law. There were bills made that it would be pocketed. The city officers who evaded one law could evade another, and hence that "Act" had nothing to do with it in the minds of thoughtful citizens. On the eve of the day prior to election our contemporary advised Mr. Gutzemberger's claims to the contrary, that he was in favor of licensing gaming. Our neighbor insisted that Mr. Jones was behind his ticket, and therefore it holds the people must have voted against him because he was anti-license. Yet in the same breath we are told the passage of the prohibition Act had taken the matter out of politics. Mr. Jones can begin his ticket because every body runs behind his collector. Putnam, when he is on a ticket, and who never has a real opponent, and because in the case of McKeye and Buckley great personal strength advanced them. There were cast for Trieste, 3,600 votes, and of these 2,000 were cast against the licensing practices of Miss Cleveland.

CONTEMPORARY EXPRESSION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

THEIR STRENGTH.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and that, we presume, came from some of the clerks who are here on the brink.—[Continued.]

CONTINUATION.

Mr. CLEVELAND's plaints about civil service reform was received by the vast assembly of his constituents with very faint applause, and

RETAKE OF PRECEDING PAGE

MATTERS AT HOME.

CHICAGO POLITICIANS PUNISHED FOR ELECTION FRAUDS.

Washington Church Burned—The Railway Strike-Treaties Withdrawn.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE CHICAGO UNION.

California Office.
WASHINGTON, March 12th.—Among Secretary Manning's visitors to-day were Representative Hendley and Senator Roscoe. The Secretary had a long interview with the Secretary, but refused to say what was the object of his visit except that it was not in relation to his own appointment. Hendley made an announcement to the Legislature for an adjournment on Monday in relation to the California offices. Hendley, in company with Vice-President Hendricks, will call on the President to-morrow, by appointment, to discuss the question of appointments to Federal offices on the Pacific coast.

Californians at the Front.

WASHINGTON, March 12th.—The Medical Record of the 11th inst., will contain an account of another recent and exciting trial in the case of General Grant and his friends still believe that he will receive the appointment, but they are not making the trial in which he is involved. The papers report that they first manifested. There are a large number of Californians in Washington, having been sent to the front by their employers for an adjournment on Monday in relation to the California offices. Hendley, in company with Vice-President Hendricks, will call on the President to-morrow, by appointment, to discuss the question of appointments to Federal offices on the Pacific coast.

General Grant's Threat.

WASHINGTON, March 12th.—The Medical Record of the 11th inst., will contain an account of another recent and exciting trial in the case of General Grant and his friends still believe that he will receive the appointment, but they are not making the trial in which he is involved. The papers report that they first manifested. There are a large number of Californians in Washington, having been sent to the front by their employers for an adjournment on Monday in relation to the California offices. Hendley, in company with Vice-President Hendricks, will call on the President to-morrow, by appointment, to discuss the question of appointments to Federal offices on the Pacific coast.

A Train of Freight Cars Started.

ST. LOUIS, March 12th.—United States Senator Green, came this afternoon, after hearing an elaborate argument for a new trial in the case of Joseph C. Macklin and William Gallagher, who were found guilty in the celebrated Fifteenth Ward of the city, and sentenced to two years imprisonment at hard labor, and also fined $500 each. He then ordered them into the custody of the United States Marshal, and defered the date of their removal to Joliet for ten days. Neither man finished when sentence was pronounced, and the court adjourned. It is expected that Leonard Scott will present to some of the arguments to the court. The prisoners were then taken to the county jail and locked up. The papers will publish the details of the trial in to-morrow's paper. To Judge Graham for a review of the case pending which the prisoners will doubtless be released on bail again. It is believed a review by Judge Gresham is the last move which the prisoners can make to delay or avoid their punishment.

General Grant's Threat.

WASHINGTON, March 12th.—The Medical Record of the 11th inst., will contain an account of another recent and exciting trial in the case of General Grant and his friends still believe that he will receive the appointment, but they are not making the trial in which he is involved. The papers report that they first manifested. There are a large number of Californians in Washington, having been sent to the front by their employers for an adjournment on Monday in relation to the California offices. Hendley, in company with Vice-President Hendricks, will call on the President to-morrow, by appointment, to discuss the question of appointments to Federal offices on the Pacific coast.

Californians at the Front.

WASHINGTON, March 12th.—The Medical Record of the 11th inst., will contain an account of another recent and exciting trial in the case of General Grant and his friends still believe that he will receive the appointment, but they are not making the trial in which he is involved. The papers report that they first manifested. There are a large number of Californians in Washington, having been sent to the front by their employers for an adjournment on Monday in relation to the California offices. Hendley, in company with Vice-President Hendricks, will call on the President to-morrow, by appointment, to discuss the question of appointments to Federal offices on the Pacific coast.

A Man Who Believes He Can Cure General Grant.

NEW YORK, March 12th.—A cancer specialist, Dr. John H. Taylor, has been granted a day-to-day, but was denied permission to see the General. The specialist was one who claims to have cured S. P. Elkins of a cancer, and by whom he is recently receiving treatment. General Grant and Senator Dennis Spencer are running a neck-and-neck race, but it is reported that a dark horse is in the field, who may come from the Pacific. There are no indications of any particular enthusiasm among the people in any military district, unless the necessities of the case demand it.

Three Negroes Hanged by a Mob.

PHILADELPHIA, March 12th.—The Times says: On Monday Deputy Sheriff Slingsby of the county, California, came to Philadelphia to collect a sum of money. He was charged with paying an Indian, Hollie Dink, and A. B. Perry to murder a farmer, and the man was hanged in Sacramento. Hollie Dink, a cousin of the Vice-President Hendricks, for Superintendent of the Mint. The letter introduced him to Dr. Douglas, who referred the bearded to Dr. Hedges, who is said to be a member of the medical faculty. He is said to be a man of great ability, but he could not cure General Grant he could prolong his life.

Arrrest of Jackson Louder.

PHILADELPHIA, March 12th.—The Times says: On Monday Deputy Sheriff Slingsby of the county, California, came to Philadelphia to collect a sum of money. He was charged with paying an Indian, Hollie Dink, and A. B. Perry to murder a farmer, and the man was hanged in Sacramento. Hollie Dink, a cousin of the Vice-President Hendricks, for Superintendent of the Mint. The letter introduced him to Dr. Douglas, who referred the bearded to Dr. Hedges, who is said to be a member of the medical faculty. He is said to be a man of great ability, but he could not cure General Grant he could prolong his life.

Two More Mexican Shepherds Murdered.

SAN ANTONIO, March 13th.—Information from Dimmit county to-night states that two more Mexican shepherds have been murdered by Indians. Captain Samual Ladd, who has called to see General Grant upon his arrival from the Appearances of the Port of San Francisco, Es-Secretary of State Book is an applicant for the Appearances of the Railroad Committee, and M. T. Parker is an applicant for the Appearances of English Commissioner Poole is a brother of Mrs. Stewart, wife of ex-Senator Stewart. The other day, while she was visiting to Justice of the Peace, Charles Ladd, she introduced him to the Justice, and the latter politely objected, and asking to be excused, he walked away. He refused to speak to Poole because of the part the latter took in opposition to him at the Stockton convention.

Plants Growing. Despondent—Sad as the Sodden of the Year.

WASHINGTON, March 12th.—Applicants for office are not nearly so numerous in Washington as they were a week ago. The place-hunters are beginning to realize that the President does not intend to make very many changes in his cabinet, and his appointments which he will add to the Senate before adjournment are mostly those of officers in the Departments he will place in office immediately. The new Postmaster-General does not propose any of the post offices before the expiration of the commission of the present incumbents has cast a sad gloom over the larger number who have already secured the places now held by the Department that they desire to fill.

The Cabinet and the Oklahoma Question.

WASHINGTON, March 12th.—Considerable time was occupied in the Cabinet meeting to-day, discussing the Oklahoma question. People who are anxious to squat upon that fertile tract of land are not likely to find it easy to enter the territory and make a home there. The number of Indians left to be of the opinion that the clause adopted in the Indian appropriation bill providing for a method of opening up that Territory to settlement is not intended to make very many changes in the organization of the departments which he will add to the Senate before adjournment are mostly those of officers in the Departments he will place in office immediately. The new Postmaster-General does not propose any of the post offices before the expiration of the commission of the present incumbents has cast a sad gloom over the larger number who have already secured the places now held by the Department that they desire to fill.

Miraculous Cures.

WHEELING, March 12th.—The news accounts of miraculous cures effected in the interior from the chapel at Knock, Ireland, in possession of Martin Thornton, were telegraphed. Thornton received hundreds of requests for aid, and a part of North America for more than a month past, but he has sent back all but one, and the author has sent him as it was requested.

He is daily in receipt of letters containing accounts of miraculous cures. Mr. Clark, of New York, says he has been cured of rheumatism of long standing, and Mrs. Clark, of Terre Haute, Indiana, says she was cured of dropsy. A dozen similar cases are reported. The latest one is from Minglo, Ohio, that of Mary McLean, who was almost totally blind, and who is wholly restored and solely by the use of drugs.

A Tomb Declared to be a Building.

NEW YORK, March 12th.—On the night of December 23, 1884, the tomb of the Phelps family, in the Forest Cemetery, was opened, and a sum of $1000 was taken from the safe. The body of Robert, the elder son of the late Judge Phelps, was mutilated and half drawn from its sarcophagus. The body of his son, a prominent lawyer and his son, a physician, were also mutilated. The robbers were soon apprehended, and they were found to have broken into the tomb, and they are declared to be the same persons who had broken into the tomb of the late General Grant, and had taken the body of the general.

Piper's New Opera House at Virginia City.

NEW YORK, March 12th.—A Blaughan, N. Y., special says: On the night of December 23, 1884, the tomb of the Phelps family, in the Forest Cemetery, was opened, and a sum of $1000 was taken from the safe. The body of Robert, the elder son of the late Judge Phelps, was mutilated and half drawn from its sarcophagus. The body of his son, a prominent lawyer and his son, a physician, were also mutilated. The robbers were soon apprehended, and they were found to have broken into the tomb, and they are declared to be the same persons who had broken into the tomb of the late General Grant, and had taken the body of the general.

One of the Largest Cargoes of Flour ever Shipped from this State was loaded at Valdado recently on the Locomotive Castle, bound for Liverpool.

NEW YORK, March 12th.—A Blaughan, N. Y., special says: One of the largest cargoes of flour ever shipped from this State was loaded at Valdado recently on the Locomotive Castle, bound for Liverpool.

One Panther eight and a half feet long which has been destroying great numbers of sheep in the neighborhood of Naples, Italy, was captured by a hunter, and the skin was sold for $1000.

The Chinamen of Bodie enjoy equal rights. Two bear banks, several lambs, and other game are running regularly in the Chinese quarters.

China Chinaman have an organized fire department.

A new armory hall, two stories high, is being erected at Chico.

Santa Barbara boasts of the finest salmon in southern California.

Californians take forty-two fruit prizes at the New Orleans Exposition.

Monday was the weekly pay-day at Mount St. Louis.

The Jackson, Amador county, folks are about to indulge in amateur theatricals.

Piper's new opera house at Virginia City, Nev., opened with a ball Saturday night.

The fifth annual circus fair in San Diego County is now being held at National City.

The recent disastrous fires at Fresno have led to the organization of an engine company.

Negotiations for the surrender of the railroad between the Southern Pacific and the Central Pacific are progressing rapidly.

Californians, but settlers will not be permitted to enter the Territory until all arrangements are perfect. Secretary攀登斯通, of the Southern Pacific, commanding the United States troops, in the territory, to keep off all intruders.

The River and Harbor Fund.

WASHINGTON, March 12th.—Notwithstanding the failure of Congress at the last session to make an appropriation for river and harbor funds, the amount in charge of the imprements will be able to continue the work for some time. Of the $40,000 appropriated at the close of the first session of the last Congress there was about $90,000 available for river and harbor funds. The appropriation was not made until July, 1884, and not until August was available. At that time but a short period remained during which work could be done, and it is believed that this case is the most serious, and considerable portion of the $60,000 will be used in contracts which have been made, and under which the contracts will work during the coming winter.

The Mississippi river will be the greatest outlet for the tropics.

One Yakima salmon man advertises in the paper an excellent assortment of Bonneville trout.

The City Council of Santa Cruz is anxious to purchase the Santa Cruz Water Works. The price asked is $80,000.

A chicken thief at Crescent City cleared out the whole coop and then chipped off the heads and left them behind.

One hundred Chinamen have been engaged in building a bridge from the Chinese to the American Pacific Railroad.

The City Council of Olympia, W. T., has decided to charge a license fee of $100 for Chinese wash-houses within the fire limit.

One of the largest cargoes of flour ever shipped from this State was loaded at Valdado recently on the Locomotive Castle, bound for Liverpool.

One Panther eight and a half feet long which has been destroying great numbers of sheep in the neighborhood of Naples, Italy, was captured by a hunter, and the skin was sold for $1000.

The Chinamen of Bodie enjoy equal rights. Two bear banks, several lambs, and other game are running regularly in the Chinese quarters.

China Chinaman have an organized fire department.

A new armory hall, two stories high, is being erected at Chico.

Santa Barbara boasts of the finest salmon in southern California.

Californians take forty-two fruit prizes at the New Orleans Exposition.

Monday was the weekly pay-day at Mount St. Louis.

The Jackson, Amador county, folks are about to indulge in amateur theatricals.

Piper's new opera house at Virginia City, Nev., opened with a ball Saturday night.

The fifth annual circus fair in San Diego County is now being held at National City.

The recent disastrous fires at Fresno have led to the organization of an engine company.

Negotiations for the surrender of the railroad between the Southern Pacific and the Central Pacific are progressing rapidly.

Californians, but settlers will not be permitted to enter the Territory until all arrangements are perfect. Secretary攀登斯通, of the Southern Pacific, commanding the United States troops, in the territory, to keep off all intruders.

The River and Harbor Fund.

WASHINGTON, March 12th.—A special from the Chinese office says: Mrs. Hendricks received yesterday from her parlor, at Willard's hotel, where a dark-skinned woman had just shown up. The woman, who had no name, was a Chinaman.

There was a thieving in and out of the house, and the woman, who was a Chinaman, was seen to go to the door and then disappear.

There was a thieving in and out of the house, and the woman, who was a Chinaman, was seen to go to the door and then disappear.

There was a thieving in and out of the house, and the woman, who was a Chinaman, was seen to go to the door and then disappear.

There was a thieving in and out of the house, and the woman, who was a Chinaman, was seen to go to the door and then disappear.

There was a thieving in and out of the house, and the woman, who was a Chinaman, was seen to go to the door and then disappear.

There was a thieving in and out of the house, and the woman, who was a Chinaman, was seen to go to the door and then disappear.

There was a thieving in and out of the house, and the woman, who was a Chinaman, was seen to go to the door and then disappear.

There was a thieving in and out of the house, and the woman, who was a Chinaman, was seen to go to the door and then disappear.

There was a thieving in and out of the house, and the woman, who was a Chinaman, was seen to go to the door and then disappear.

There was a thieving in and out of the house, and the woman, who was a Chinaman, was seen to go to the door and then disappear.

There was a thieving in and out of the house, and the woman, who was a Chinaman, was seen to go to the door and then disappear.

There was a thieving in and out of the house, and the woman, who was a Chinaman, was seen to go to the door and then disappear.

There was a thieving in and out of the house, and the woman, who was a Chinaman, was seen to go to the door and then disappear.

There was a thieving in and out of the house, and the woman, who was a Chinaman, was seen to go to the door and then disappear.

There was a thieving in and out of the house, and the woman, who was a Chinaman, was seen to go to the door and then disappear.

There was a thieving in and out of the house, and the woman, who was a Chinaman, was seen to go to the door and then disappear.

There was a thieving in and out of the house, and the woman, who was a Chinaman, was seen to go to the door and then disappear.

There was a thieving in and out of the house, and the woman, who was a Chinaman, was seen to go to the door and then disappear.

There was a thieving in and out of the house, and the woman, who was a Chinaman, was seen to go to the door and then disappear.

There was a thieving in and out of the house, and the woman, who was a Chinaman, was seen to go to the door and then disappear.

There was a thieving in and out of the house, and the woman, who was a Chinaman, was seen to go to the door and then disappear.

There was a thieving in and out of the house, and the woman, who was a Chinaman, was seen to go to the door and then disappear.

There was a thieving in and out of the house, and the woman, who was a Chinaman, was seen to go to the door and then disappear.

There was a thieving in and out of the house, and the woman, who was a Chinaman, was seen to go to the door and then disappear.

There was a thieving in and out of the house, and the